

It's important to have friends, but also to have sponsors.

We are pleased to have you as a student in the Hochschule für Musik und Tanz Köln, where you look forward to an excellent and versatile course of studies. We are therefore eager to assist you as the Förderverein (Association of Supporters) with financial support to help you attain your goals despite difficult financial situations.

You can profit from the following types of support.

- Grant for master classes and workshops

If you don't have the financial means to participate in a master class, workshop etc., you can apply for a grant amounting to max. 400 Euros (per application) to pay for tuition fees, travel costs or room and board.

- Assistance for special financial circumstances

Anyone can find themselves in a temporary crisis. If you have financial problems which negatively affect your studies, you can apply for our special funds as a temporary solution.

Contact us.

If you are interested in our financial support opportunities, please contact us via email

Foerderverein@HfMT-Koeln.de

Every application will be considered individually. A written approval of the respective major subject professor and university president is required.

We aim at providing support with joy.

A prominent institution like the HfMT needs friends and sponsors to enhance its development. This is why we offer a wide-ranging and attractive sponsoring program. Along with direct financial support, we offer:

- Support for concerts, opera productions and dance performances
- Internal and external competitions
- Early support for highly gifted youths in the Pre-College Cologne
